

The Heritage Singers

The Heritage Singers in Concert at St. Peter's Church, Thorner, Leeds.

The choir exists to continue the long tradition of choral music which has existed in the Church in England since Tudor times. It has been in existence for thirteen years, being formed initially from church musicians whose local choir was no longer viable. The choir sings mainly for Anglican or Church of England Services but has also sung for services in Churches of other traditions and aims to produce an English choral sound in the music sung.

The choir has performed in concerts, mainly to raise funds to help in the core work of singing for services. There is no charge made to sing a service, although donations are always appreciated towards the cost of maintaining the library of music, robes and other expenses. The concert repertoire, although containing many sacred pieces, adds secular works dating from Tudor times to the present day. What the choir has which is special is fellowship together, co-operation and concern for other choir members. This enables the soloists to not only sing as soloists but also blend in with the other members of the choir to produce the sound required.

We sang Evensong in the wonderful St. Nicholaaskerk, Amsterdam in 2006 and in St. Stephen's Basilica and Estergom Cathedral in Budapest during 2007.

We visited Northumberland in July 2007 and sang the Offices in Hexham Abbey.

In May 2008, we sang the Offices in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin and in August did the same in Southwell Minster. We visited St. Botolph's church, Allerthorpe near Pocklington for a Harvest celebration in October.

"Thank you so much to all the choir for such a wonderful event. Everyone went home happy and uplifted. It was all just totally excellent."
Churchwarden of St. Hilda's Church, Cross Green.

2009 sees us active with a Concert in February at Meanwood Parish Church; 'The Cross of Christ' at St. James' Seacroft on Palm Sunday and a 'Come and Sing Messiah' at St. Michael's Headingley on the Saturday after Easter. These Leeds events are supplemented with a visit to St. Woolo's Cathedral, Newport for the Offices over Spring Bank Holiday; a Patronal Festival in St. Peter's Church, Sicklinghall and visits to Manchester and Sheffield Cathedrals for the weekend Offices.

Despite our exciting visits within Europe and the USA, we exist to sing music well and to bring it back to places which have lost it. We are equally happy to work alongside small village choirs in workshops to prepare a service or concert and enable others to still enjoy being part of a live performance. The high standard we reach has been achieved through hard work and friendly co-operation. We would hope to share this with congregations or audiences wherever we are. We celebrated over 200 events with a Festal Evensong on 30th. March 2008 in Leeds Parish Church.

The choir has made four CDs which were all well received and sold out quickly but recording is not the main purpose. Live music, created with and for other worshippers to experience the presence of God in their lives. One comment treasured from one service 'that was a truly spiritual moment for me' makes all the effort worth-while.

'a truly splendid choir'
Dr. Simon Lindley, Master of the Music, Leeds Parish Church

What we offer

Worship

The choir is capable of leading worship for any Anglican Service in the Prayer Book. We are also happy to prepare services for special occasions, such as Patronal Festivals, Meditations for Lent or Holy Week. We are happy to join remnants of choirs to do this. We make no charge for this but do welcome a donation towards our costs.

Concerts

Not only do we have a repertoire of Sacred Music for Services but also an extensive repertoire of Secular Music to compliment this. We present the music with interesting and informative comments to help the audience appreciate what they are listening to. We do expect a fee for this, to be agreed when accepting the booking. A booking fee of £50.00 is needed when the event is confirmed.

Weddings

We are used to singing for services and so are ideally suited to Weddings. We make a charge for this and will send fuller details on request.

Workshops

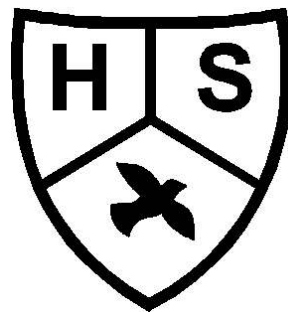

The choir will help with workshops for which there are a set of fees.

'You were absolutely stunning , I could have listened to you the whole service !'
